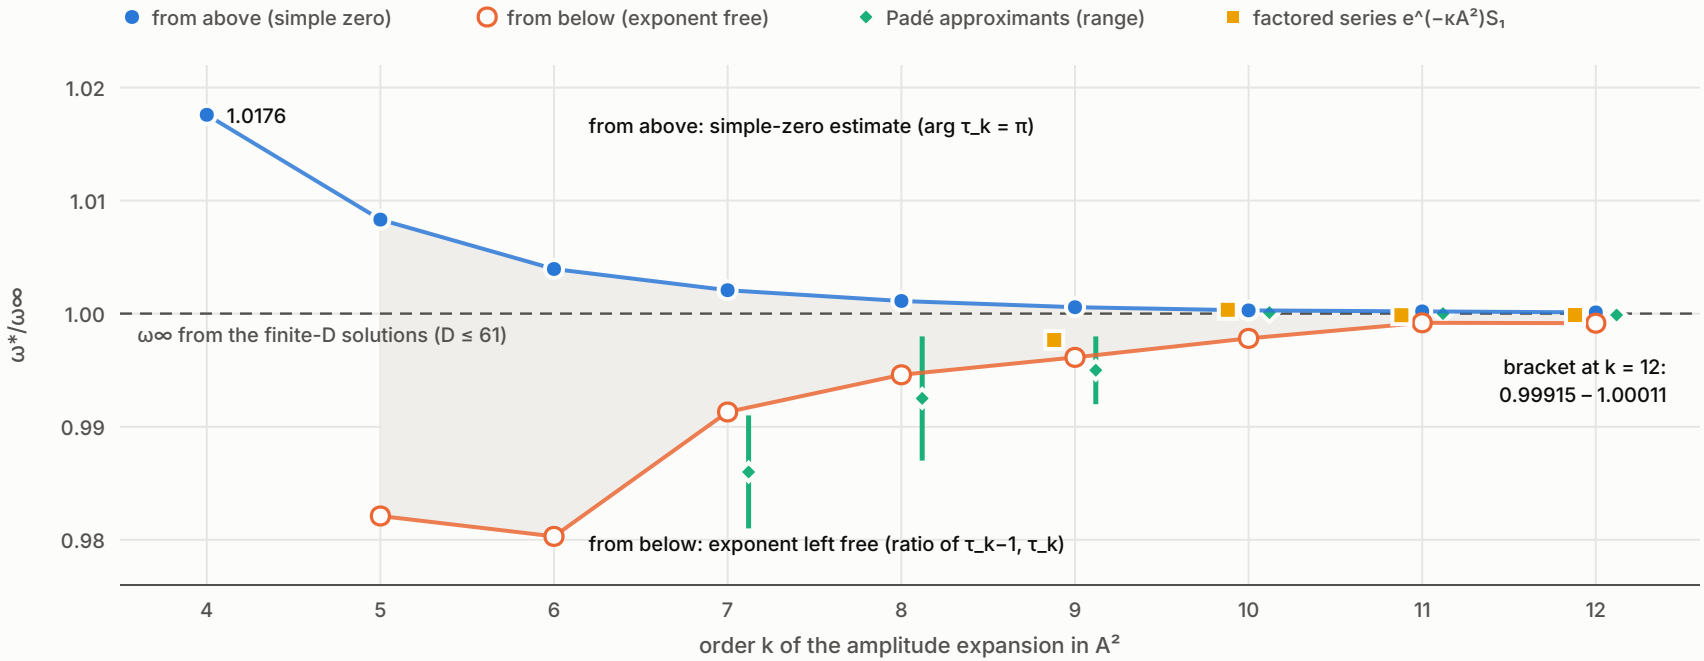
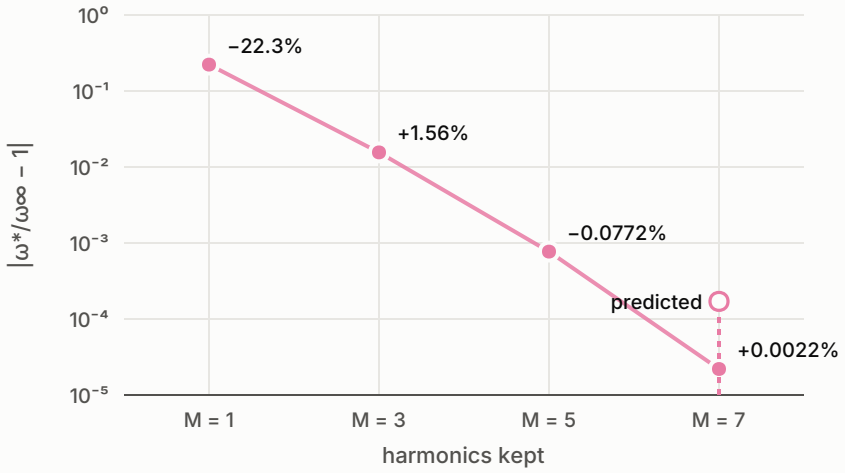
The selection rule, evaluated from the D = ∞ inner problem alone

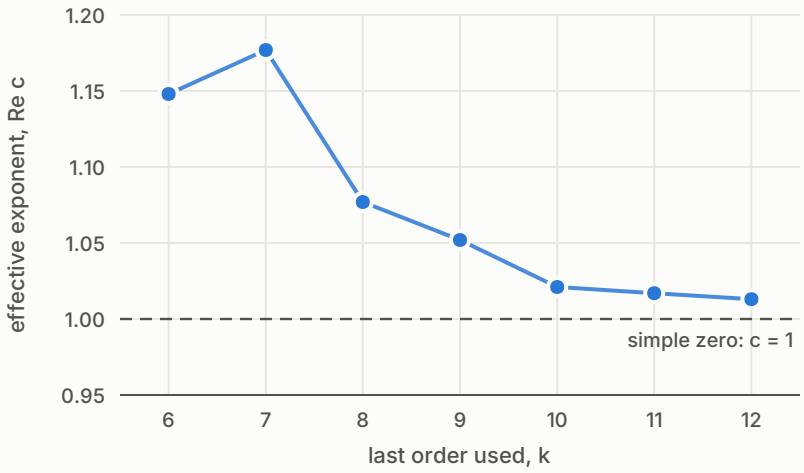
Where the harmonic-1 Stokes multiplier has a real zero, against ω∞ from the finite-D solutions (the line at 1); hover a mark for its value

Order by order: two estimates close in from opposite sides



Keeping M harmonics: the error alternates and shrinks





Is the zero simple? The effective exponent tends to 1